This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum—three days that are the highlight of the Church year.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus’ passion and death are presented as the consequence of the tension between the Jewish authorities and Jesus. This tension reached its breaking point when Jesus drove the merchants and moneychangers from the Temple. After this event, the chief priests and scribes began seeking a way to put Jesus to death, and yet, this is only the surface explanation for His death.

When Jesus was arrested and brought before the Sanhedrin—the council of Jewish priests, scribes, and elders—he was charged with blasphemy, citing his threat to the Temple. When he was brought before Pilate, however, the religious authorities presented his crime as a political one, charging that Jesus claimed to be king of the Jews.

When we read Mark’s account of the passion, we begin to comprehend the deeper theological statement being made about Jesus’ death. In his telling of the passion narrative, Jesus understood His death to have been preordained, and He accepted this death in obedience to God’s will. He understood his anointing in Bethany as an anticipation of His burial, and He announced that this story would be told. Jesus predicted His betrayal by Judas as well as Peter’s denial. At His arrest, Jesus acknowledged that the preordained time had arrived. Jesus was both confident and silent before His accusers. After He was sentenced to death, Jesus did not speak again until his final cry from the cross. The Roman centurion affirmed what Mark has presented throughout this Gospel: Jesus is the Son of God. Nowhere was this revealed more fully than in His death on the cross.

During Holy Week, we prayerfully remember the events of Jesus’ passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in His obedient suffering and dying, revealed Himself to us as God’s Son.

RECONCILIATION

Ten Steps to Reconciliation

- 1 Admit and express your feelings. Write them in a journal; talk them out with an impartial friend. Be honest. Say what you want to say. Get it all out.
- 2 Decide & pray. Forgiveness is not a matter of feeling, but of decision. The decision to forgive will not automatically change your feelings, but it's a start. Pray for the desire to forgive. Pray that the Lord will change both hearts. Forgiveness is a process; it takes time. Be generous with your time and your heart.
- 3 Confess and repent. Focus on your sins, not the other persons'. What did I do to contribute to the situation? No one is ever totally innocent. "It takes two..." Rid yourself of resentment; it does no good.
- 4. Let go of fear and anger. Out of fear, our hearts can harden to protect us from further hurt. We delay reconciliation because of fear of rejection. The longer one waits to reconcile, the more anger and resentment grows. What are you waiting for? Start the process. (Read and reflect on Psalm 51).
- 5 Gain a fair perspective. When hurt, our imagination has "a field day." Exaggeration blossoms. Get grounded. Place yourself in the other person's shoes. Try to understand.
- 6 Imagine the meeting. Use your imagination in a positive way. Reflect on what you will say and do. Practice smiling. Imagine that Jesus is in the room with both of you. What is He asking of you?
- 7 Meet with the other person. Reach out. Take a risk. What have you got to lose? Choose a time when neither will feel rushed. Have a positive attitude. Begin the meeting with prayer. Each speak about the experience from your own perspective. Be open to another interpretation. There are always three perspectives: yours, the other person's, and the truth.
- 8 Give thanks to God. If successful, offer thanks to God. If not, give thanks for the opportunity to put Gospel teachings into practice. Remember, we learn from our failures as well as our successes. Most of the time, there will be a tomorrow.
- 9 Deepen the reconciliation. The process continues. This initial act of forgiveness will need to be ratified by other acts of kindness. Make plans for the next get-together: dinner, shopping; some activity that will allow for communication.
- 10 Be patient. Few friendships are established in one setting; they develop over time. Reconciliation takes time, too. Be good to yourself and your friend. Let reconciliation grow and develop. You're both worth it.

BLESSED PALMS: A SYMBOL OF TRIUMPH

Blessed palms, an ancient symbol of victory, are distributed in memory of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem at the beginning of the Palm Sunday liturgy. On this day, we are reminiscent of the saints in heaven "wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands" (Rev 7:9). The white robes remind us of baptismal garments, and the palms suggest their triumph over sin and death through the waters of Baptism. Palms may be saved until the following year when they can be burned into ashes for use on Ash Wednesday.

Palm Sunday also marks the start of Holy Week whereby Lent comes to an end before the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. That liturgy begins the Triduum, the great Three Days that celebrate the central mystery of our faith. Triduum rituals invite us all to baptismal renewal, for example:

Washing of Feet: After the homily on Holy Thursday, we imitate our Master in the washing of feet. We are reminded of our baptismal commitment to be servants of one another. Jesus' words to Peter: "Whoever has bathed has no need except to have his feet washed" (Jn 13:10). Many scholars have seen a baptismal reference in those words.

Veneration of the Cross: As part of our observance of Good Friday, we venerate the cross on which Christ died. The veneration challenges us to be willing to accept the cross, too, for it is the only way to resurrection. Through Baptism, we shared in Christ's death that we might come to new life. We are called to identify with his cross and resurrection.

Waters of Baptism: The core of our celebration of the Easter Vigil is the Baptism of the elect. As we share in their joy on this holy night, we are to renew our own baptismal promises, to live in the joy of life in the Risen One. Lent comes to its fulfillment around the waters of the font.

Jesus is obedient to His Father's Will; He does not refuse to serve and suffer for our sins. His only moment of glory on earth was riding into Jerusalem on a donkey. As He entered Jerusalem, the acclamation of the people, "Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord,"(Matt 21:9) clearly reveal that Jesus was hailed as the Messianic King. Yet only days later, our Lord would hear the cry "Crucify!" (Matt. 27:22-23) Pope John Paul II observed in his book, Crossing the Threshold of Hope, that God would go to any lengths to draw us close to Him: "Could God go further in His stooping down, in His drawing near to man, thereby expanding the possibilities of our knowing Him? In truth it seems that he has gone as far as possible. He could not go further. In a certain sense, God has gone too far!"

We too are called upon to serve and do God's Will. Sometimes the demands on us are so great that we find it very difficult to do so. Jesus says to trust and to call on Him. He will be present in our moment of need. Jesus invites us into a close relationship with Himself. He invites us to find time in our life to pray, so that we stay in touch with Him. More than anything else, our daily moments of prayer, our brief but regular going aside with Him, enables us to do even that one more thing.

Palm Sunday should be celebrated, not as a commemoration of an historical event, but as an archetypal mystery and another step in the process of psychological and spiritual transformation. We need to have faith and trust and know that God's power is at work. Faith and trust in Christ will help us to break down the walls of frustration, worry and anxiety. Let us call upon Him today to come into our life. Say, "Yes Lord, whatever Your will is Lord, I will do my best to comply."

Be my Lord and my peacemaker.

Mass and Devotions April 12, 2015 at 3:00 PM

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is to be started on Good Friday April 3, for nine days ending on Saturday April 11. In 1935 Our Lord taught Blessed Faustina a special prayer for mercy: "Encourage souls to say the Chaplet. Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy...Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will" (Dairy, 1731). Visit: visitationRCchurch.org for the Chaplet of Mercy.

SILENCING OUR DISAPPOINTMENTS

As we travel on our Lenten journey we pray and with prayer move into silence. We hold off on the sarcastic comment aimed at our spouse. We silence a cutting remark. We drop the correction before it comes out of our mouths. Neglect the pouting. Stop the stony silence when we are displeased. These behaviors can be long standing and not easy to change. Also, it might take a while before our spouse really trusts these efforts. We will be the ones doing the “giving” for a while.

We are born selfish creatures crying out for someone to take care of our needs. The process of growing in this life seems to be learning how to become less selfish, less self-absorbed. On our good days we can do that, by loving, giving and caring for others before thinking of ourselves. But on our bad days, we look at our spouses and others and grumble about the unfairness: “Why is it always ME who has to do the giving? Why doesn’t my spouse have to care about ME first? Am I always the one who has to apologize first? Ask about the other’s day first? When is it MY turn to be taken care of?”

We are called to love in marriage the way we are loved by Jesus – without figuring out what we will get out of it. “Love one another as I have loved you.” As I have loved you. In the same way Jesus loves us – without limits. And so we love our spouse who is crabby and barking. Instead of snapping a response we can ask ourselves, “What does my spouse need right now?” It’s not about giving up my dignity or rolling over to a bully. It’s about loving someone who might not be very loveable right now.

We can wallow in our own self-pity and self-absorption, but it is in that moment that we are being called more deeply into Jesus’ love. We must die to our own needs and our own longing in order to find a new life in Jesus. In a profound way, we are being called to the simplest task: to care about other people before we take care of ourselves. What kind of people would we be if we got everything we wanted? If we never had to move outside of our own needs and desires? Jesus asks us: What good is it for us to get everything we want, if in the process we lose our very selves?
