Reflections for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week and next week Gospel's describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called “apostles.” The word apostle means “one who is sent.” The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. Jesus sends them in pairs, establishing his mission as a communal endeavor. Jesus also instructs them to travel lightly, without the customary food, money, and extra set of clothes. These instructions mean that the Twelve will be dependent on the hospitality of others, just as Jesus depended on others to provide for his needs.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

SPIRITUALITY DAY FOR MATURING ADULTS

Broad St., Hamilton, NJ. The day will feature nationally renowned Dr. Richard Johnson, of the Johnson Institute. A panel of experts will also be available to discuss topics such as eldercare law, veteran's homecare, phones for seniors, home healthcare, as well as other opportunities and benefits for seniors. The day will conclude with the celebration of Mass. $10 registration fee includes all activities, as well as coffee and snacks in the morning and a boxed lunch. You may sign up online by visiting www.dioceseoftrenton.org/pastoralcare/july15event

EXCUSED FROM MASS DURING VACATON

This is actually a common and unfortunate misconception. As Catholics we are expected to attend Mass every Sunday and other Holy Days of Obligation. One primary reason for attending Mass is to receive Jesus' Body and Blood. That's not just an obligation but an amazing gift. The Church doesn't want us to miss an opportunity to meet with Christ for any avoidable reason.

However, going to Mass at a local church can be a fun way to experience the local customs of places we visit. While the Mass itself doesn't change, parishes may have different ways of greeting visitors, singing different hymns or even offer hospitality after Mass that can help you get tips for places to visit while you are there. To find the nearest Catholic Church anywhere in the United States, go to www.parishesonline.com or www.masstimes.org.

RCIA CORNER

HOW DO WE USE SCRIPTURE?

The inspired Word of God contained in Sacred Scripture is the foundation of our Catholic faith. As such, it is a source of personal prayer and piety as well as theological reflection and authoritative teaching. The Scriptures are proclaimed and prayed in our official liturgical rituals as well as in many of our private devotions. Catholics are urged to read and pray over the Bible as a source of moral and spiritual guidance in their personal lives; and when Bishops or theologians exercise their roles as teacher, they draw from and refer to Scripture as the normative source of their instruction. However, we Catholics do not use Scripture in a literal or fundamentalist way. We interpret the meaning of any given passage of Scripture in light of the whole of revelation, contained both in the Bible and in Tradition that has come down to us as authoritative teaching. We recognize that Scripture uses the full range of literary forms, from hyperbole to fiction, from historical narrative to poetry. Thus our understanding of the meaning of Scripture includes an acknowledgement of the author's literary form as well as the realization that under the Holy Spirit's guidance a passage might also have a "fuller sense" of meaning that even the human author intended.

For additional information regarding the RCIA program please contact Dale at 732-477-7059 ext. 214.
