Reflections for

Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel continues the story that began in last week's Gospel. Simon Peter was called the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church, and yet Peter continues to show the limitations of his understanding of Jesus' identity. Now that the disciples have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he must suffer and die in Jerusalem to be raised on the third day. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely, calling him "Satan." In opposing this aspect of Jesus' mission, Peter shows that he is no longer speaking based on the revelation from God but as a human being. Jesus then teaches all of the disciples about the difficult path of discipleship: to be Christ's disciple is to follow in his way of the cross.

Peter could not yet understand what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah. It is unlikely that the other disciples understood any better. Messianic expectations were a common aspect of first-century Judaism. Under Roman occupation, many in Israel hoped and prayed that God would send a Messiah to free the Jews from Roman oppression. The common view was that the Messiah would be a political figure, a king that would free Israel from Roman rule. This is perhaps what Peter envisioned when he was led to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. In this passage, however, Jesus is beginning to teach his disciples that he would be the Messiah in a different way.

Jesus would be more like the suffering servant described by the prophet Isaiah than the political liberator. Those who would be Jesus' disciples would be called to a similar life of service. Perhaps this is what Peter feared most in Jesus' prediction of his Passion. He whom Jesus had called "rock" would also be called upon to offer himself in sacrifice and service to others. Christian leaders today are still called to sacrifice and serve others as Jesus did

Bereavement Ministry

Fall sessions for Visitation's Bereavement Support Group will take place on Tuesdays, 10:30 am in the Daily Chapel. Dates are: September 5, 12, 19, 26 and October 3, 10, and 17. To register, call Joan at 732-364-2483 and leave your name and phone number.

Over the past few weeks I have had the opportunity to meet a number of parishioners here at Visitation Church and I am most grateful for the warm welcome that I have received from everyone so far. I certainly look forward to what we can do together – as Catholics – to continue to move the parish forward in faith. Since I am still relatively new here at the parish, I thought it might be helpful to share some info about myself so you have some sense of who I am and what other ‘stuff’ I have been involved in as a priest. I was born and raised somewhat near here, my home parish was St. Jerome’s in West Long Branch. I have four older brothers who are married with children. As you can imagine, growing up with four older brothers certainly made for an active and lively home, to say the least. My father was ordained a permanent deacon and serves at St. Jerome’s Church. I attended St. Jerome’s Elementary School in West Long Branch and Monmouth Regional High School in Eatontown. I graduated from Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio in 2000 where I majored in, of all things, Theology. After University studies I went on to attend St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. I was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Trenton in 2006. Over the years as a priest I served at St. Aloysius Parish in Jackson and Corpus Christi Parish in Willingboro. I was also chaplain of Rider University and Notre Dame High School. Over the last eleven years as a priest I was involved in all sorts of parish and diocesan programs. Last year Bishop O’Connell allowed me to spend time in Rome for a few months on a continuing education program for priest. I had been to Rome before, but never before as a priest so it was a truly enriching experience. That’s pretty much the factual info about me so hopefully during my time here we can get to know one another on a more personal level. Hopefully we can do some positive things here at Visitation in order that we may know Christ more personally and live that relationship with Him in the Catholic Church. I look forward to doing whatever I can to make that possible! As always I trust God will bless our time together

EVANGELIZATION

WHO'S RESPONSIBILITY IS THAT?

The Church is on a mission and it is a mission for all. They say the way we can transform our church and society today is by evangelization; going out in to the marketplace and telling our own story of salvation. How is it that God has saved you? What are the miracles in your life? What are the day to day happenings where God was there? What are you willing to do to meet your neighbor's needs? Evangelization expresses the way we, as the Catholic community, live and spread the Gospel message.

The goal of evangelization is to foster a deep appreciation for the faith among all the faithful so that all will be brave enough to practice their faith with enthusiasm and invite others to share in their faith. This is what will change the world. People who love God put others first instead of themselves and turn away from sin. Wow, what a concept? Each of us is called and is responsible for evangelization. This is the heart of the Church in action. For additional information contact Dale Zanetti, at the rectory office ext. 214.
