Today's Gospel reading is taken from John's Gospel. It consists of two parts. The first part is the final sentence of Jesus' reply to Nicodemus, the Pharisee who approached Jesus at night. Nicodemus acknowledged Jesus as someone who had come from God and seemed to want to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus greeted Nicodemus with the observation that one must be born from above to see the Kingdom of God. The dialogue between Jesus and Nicodemus that followed was about the meaning of this phrase. Nicodemus misunderstood Jesus at every point, but there was no animosity in the questions he posed to Jesus.

In the part of the conversation with Nicodemus in today's Gospel, Jesus referred to an incident reported in the Old Testament. When the Israelites grumbled against the Lord during their sojourn in the desert, God sent venomous serpents to punish them for their complaints. The Israelites repented and asked Moses to pray for them. The Lord heard Moses' prayer and instructed him to make a bronze serpent and mount it on a pole. All who had been bitten by a serpent and then looked upon the bronze serpent were cured. By recalling this story, Jesus alludes to the salvation that would be accomplished through his death and Resurrection.

The second part of today's Gospel is a theological reflection on Jesus' words to Nicodemus. The Gospel of John is known for this kind of reflection offered within the narrative. The words of the Evangelist are in continuity with the words of the prologue to John's Gospel. In these reflections, John elaborates on a number of themes that are found in his Gospel: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, good and evil, salvation and condemnation.

In John's reflection, we find an observation about human sinfulness. Jesus is the light that has come into the world, but people preferred the darkness. We wish to keep our sins hidden, even from God. Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is the.

LENT HAS BEGUN

To observe this season of austerity and simple reflection is by not having flowers on the altar during the 40 days of Lent. We hope this absence of flowers during Lent will amplify the resurrection message of the Easter flowers when they arrive!

LENT INSTRUCTION

With the beginning of the Holy Season of Lent, the Church proclaims anew Christ's call to penance and conversion of life.

"If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me"

(Matthew 16:24).

The days of fast and abstinence are ASH WEDNESDAY AND GOOD FRIDAY.

The other Fridays of Lent are DAYS OF ABSTINENCE.

Those between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine are obliged to fast. By this obligation, the individual is permitted only one full meal a day.

At the age of fourteen, people are obliged to abstain. This obligation prohibits the eating of meat, (beast & fowl) but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat. Missing abstinence on any one (1) Friday is not a serious sin. Missing abstinence most of the Fridays of Lent (or more than half of them) is a serious sin that needs to be confessed & absolved.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

God of love, I know that you are the source of all that is good and graced in my life. Help me to move from the life of sin to which I so often cling, into the new life of grace you offer me. You know what I need to prepare for your kingdom. Bless me with those gifts.

What have you let go of today?

During these 40 days, let me put away all my pride. Let me change my heart and give up all that is not good within me. Let me love God with all that I am and all that I have." -- Genesis Grain

PEACE BE WITH YOU

It has been a practice for many of us to shake hands with our neighbors in church during the sign of the peace.

For those who feel uncomfortable with the shaking of hands, an alternative form for the sign of peace maybe instituted; instead of a hand shake, a smile and a bow of the head with the words, "Peace of Christ be with you" is acceptable.

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

Whether you are seriously discerning God's Call to the priesthood, or just curious about how God is calling you to serve Him in some aspect of your life, come and join us to learn more about this exciting and powerful approach to life in the Lord.

If you are a faithful, single, Roman Catholic man, between the ages of 18 and 40, and you are asking yourself whether God is calling you to be a priest, you are cordially invited to attend this month's discernment meeting on March 29, 2015, from 4:00 to 6:00 PM at Holy Eucharist Church at 520 Medford Lakes Road, Tabernacle, New Jersey. Join Rev. Andrew Jamieson as he shares in his ministry of the priesthood, great conversation, and a meal. Evening concludes with a celebration of the Liturgy marking the beginning of the most solemn time of the Church year. Please register with Diocese of Trenton Vocation Office by calling (609) 406-7449, or vocations@dioceseoftrenton.org. Join us at this exciting time as you discover this awesome way of serving the Lord and respond to His invitation! We look forward to seeing you!

Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful be led to that full conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations, which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people is their right and duty by reason of their baptism.

RCIA CORNER

CALLED BY JESUS TO BE UNSELFISH

During these weeks of Lent we are taking some time to examine our marriages. Do we love as deeply as we had originally intended when we first made our vows? As unselfishly? Whether we've been married 3 years or 30, this sacred season could be the start of a renewed relationship with our spouse, shaped by our experience of Lent.

We are invited by Jesus to put the needs of another ahead of our own. We can deepen our commitments in marriage and even change the dynamics within our relationships through unconditional love. In loving this way, we transform not only our spouses but more importantly, ourselves.

For those of us who are parents, we have probably always put the needs of our children first – but our spouse? Yes, we care for each other, but do we put the other's needs ahead of our own? And yet how profoundly would our marriages change if we simply lived that vow for a while?

During Lent, we can make "obeying" the special focus of our lives. What if each day during Lent, we asked for the grace to be more unselfish in our marriage? As a first step, what if tomorrow, before we got out of bed, we asked God to help us love our spouse more? To put the needs of this life partner of ours ahead of our own?

Taken from "Looking at Marriage During Lent" from Creighton University.

PALM

With Palm Sunday just around the corner, some of you may be wondering what you should do with last year's palm once you receive this years. There are boxes at all the doors of the church for Palm. You may drop off your old Palm to be burned at this year's Easter Vigil.

"Whoever serves me must follow me, say the Lord; and where I am, there also will be my servant"
