Reflections for the Third Sunday of Easter

Consistently in the reports of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances, Jesus greets his disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." This is a most appropriate greeting. The disciples have witnessed the death of someone they loved, and they now fear for their own lives as well. Peace is what they need more than anything else. Jesus often connects this greeting of peace with another gift—forgiveness. In today's Gospel, this connection is made in the final verses.

Even as they hear Jesus' greeting of peace, the disciples are startled and terrified. They are uncertain about what to make of the figure before them and, quite understandably, they mistake Jesus for a ghost. Yet the figure before them is not a ghost; Jesus invites them to experience his resurrected body with their senses, to look and to touch. The figure before them is flesh and bone, still bearing the marks of crucifixion. Although the disciples cannot forget his suffering and death, peace begins to take root in their hearts, as their fears turn to joy and amazement.

As further proof of his identity and of his resurrected body, Jesus eats with his disciples. The disciples have known Jesus best through the meals that he has shared with them. By eating with his disciples after his Resurrection, Jesus recalls all these meals, and most importantly, he recalls the Last Supper.

Having shared a meal with his disciples, Jesus now uncovers for them the significance of what was written about him in the Scriptures. So, too, our celebration of the Mass is an encounter with Jesus, through the Word and the Sacrament of the Eucharist. As Jesus commissions his disciples to be witnesses to what Scriptures foretold, our celebration of the Eucharist commissions us. Like the disciples, we are sent to announce the good news of Jesus' forgiveness of sins.

RCIA CORNER

THE FAMILY-3

From the Pontifical Council on the Family (Summary Statement) Love is our Mission-The Family Fully Alive:

“Sustained by the Holy Spirit and the sacraments of the Church, we seek this communion, which Jesus has promised is our destiny. We believe that all aspects of our lives-including our sexuality, fertility and family life-are part of this mission to live and love as Jesus taught.”

We are not alone. Jesus has sent his Holy Spirit to be with us, to sustain us and to teach us God’s ways. We live here on earth, trying to live our best life, while we await the heavenly banquet that we have been promised. Even if we are not intimately aware of God, he is aware of each of us. He is involved in every aspect of our lives. There is nothing that we can keep secret from him.

If we are having difficulty in our relationships – he wants to hear from us. If we are having trouble conceiving a child we need to seek his guidance. We know just by looking at our loved ones how much Jesus loves us and is active in our family life. So we need to be communicating with him in everything, every day, and every way.

Ask yourself this question: What would help you to become more familiar or even intimate with Jesus?

Join Us For Coffee, Donuts and Conversation is next Sunday, April 26, after all Masses and will be hosted by the Cub Scouts. Please join us downstairs for fellowship with new and old friends. Enjoy our healthy alternative by indulging in fresh fruit.

If anyone is interested in helping ease the financial burden of Community Sunday, please stop by or call the rectory office (ext. 201) and speak with Denise Patetta. DIocese OF TRENTON DOES NOT APPROVE, RECOGNIZE “MARY’S WAY WORLDWIDE APOSTOLATE”

It has been brought to the attention of the Diocese of Trenton that an organization called “Mary’s Way Worldwide Apostolate” is operating in Point Pleasant & Brick Township, New Jersey, within the Diocese of Trenton.

This organization advertises “miracles” attributed to an alleged Capuchin Franciscan “Fr. David” and is soliciting money. This “Franciscan” claims to have the stigmata or wounds of Christ. This organization claims visions of and allocutions from the Blessed Mother Mary under various titles by its members. It also claims some connection to St. Padre Pio.

The Superior of the Capuchin Franciscan Order in Rome has been contacted and has responded that no such stigmatist with the name “Fr. David” exists in his order. This organization has no official connection with the Roman Catholic Church nor has it ever received any official approval or recognition by the Holy See.

The Diocese of Trenton only recently learned of its existence and operation and has never given its approval or recognition to “Mary’s Way Worldwide Apostolate.” It has no relationship to or association with the Diocese of Trenton.

Because it uses Roman Catholic vocabulary, images and elements of doctrine, “Mary’s Way Worldwide Apostolate” has caused confusion among some devout and well-intentioned members of the faithful. The Diocese of Trenton has received complaints of fraudulent activity and wishes to notify Roman Catholics that “Mary’s Way Worldwide Apostolate” is not an officially approved or recognized Roman Catholic organization. The complaints have been submitted to law enforcement officials in Ocean County.

Most Reverend David M. O’Connell, C.M.
Bishop of Trenton
