Reflections for

The Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In chapter 14 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus is speaking to people gathered at the table about the difficulties of following him. This group of people is suspicious about Jesus, looking to catch him doing something wrong. Jesus speaks to them in parables, emphasizing that although there is a right way to be a disciple and enter into the kingdom of his Father, it is a difficult path to follow. Many, even some of the guests at the table, reject the invitation. So Jesus turns to the crowds and speaks to them of discipleship. Jesus explains that, when it comes to making a choice for the Kingdom of God, nothing can get in the way. When Jesus describes "hating" one's father and mother, he is not talking about feelings. Rather, he is emphasizing very strongly that choosing to be a disciple means that everything else—family, money, your own life—must come second. In Matthew's version of this story (Matthew 10:37), Jesus refers not to "hating" father or mother, but to loving them more than Jesus. Jesus makes it very clear that being a disciple is not easy. It means to bear one's own cross. These difficult sayings of Jesus are followed by two brief parables (a person constructing a tower and a king marching into battle) that make an obvious point—don't start what you cannot finish. Discipleship is difficult and is something we can commit to only if we are prepared to put the Kingdom of God before everything else.

LABOR OF LIGHT AND LOVE

We celebrate Labor Day on Monday. Other countries have similar celebrations. We can see God as the author of Labor Day since He worked for six days in creating and then rested on the seventh. Similarly, He punished Adam with toil and Eve with labor pains for Original Sin. While labor was a punishment, it is also a remedy. Through work, we learn to make a gift of ourselves for others. We sacrifice for others. When the Son became incarnate, He labored for us, first as a carpenter, then as priest and victim. Jesus is a model for us and invites us to labor with Him for the salvation of souls.

God delights in His creation. One of those brightest lights is soon-to-be (or already) St. Teresa of Calcutta. Pope Francis will celebrate the canonization Mass at 4:00 a.m. our time on Sunday, September 4th. (See EWTN at 4:00 a.m. or for one of the repeats later in the day.) Bishop O'Connell will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at 11:00 a.m. in Asbury Park.

While Monday is Labor Day, it will also be the feast of St. Teresa of Calcutta, the first since her canonization. She was born to eternal life on September 5, 1997. Currently, her feast can be celebrated in certain places like India. Perhaps after the canonization, she'll be on the General Roman Calendar.

How fitting that Mother Teresa is being canonized during the Jubilee Year of Mercy. On September 10, 1946, she received interior locutions and visions. Jesus begged her to "Come be My light." The encounter prompted her to found the Missionaries of Charity "to quench the infinite thirst of Jesus on the cross for love and souls" by "laboring at the salvation and sanctification of the poorest of the poor."

Only her spiritual directors knew of her 40 years of going through the Dark Night of the Soul. She didn't feel God's love during those years. Yet, God worked through her. She labored with Him for the salvation of souls. We, too, can be co-laborers with the Lord.

"If I ever become a Saint -- I will surely be one of 'darkness.' I will continually be absent from Heaven -- to light the light of those in darkness on earth."

--St. Teresa of Calcutta

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

Pope Francis asks people around the world to "take good care of creation" and to care for our common home. He emphasizes, both "believers and unbelievers agree that the earth is a common heritage, the fruits of which should benefit everyone." He calls us to recognize "the relationship between poverty and the fragility of the planet."

This command from our Holy Father is so relevant in today's age and we are reminded of our responsibilities in this regard. On September 1, we celebrated a day of prayer for the "Care of Creation" and we should continue to pray for this in our daily lives. It is not just the obligation of the few but of all members of the human race to look at ways we can make a better world. After all, this is OUR home and we should be caring for it in a way that all may benefit from its fruits.

As individuals, we can take important steps to answer Pope Francis' call to care for our common home by examining our lifestyles, reducing our consumption, and being conscious of our choices. We can also contribute on a broader scale to lasting change by working actively within our communities to address environmental challenges in our neighborhoods, towns and cities, and advocating for environmental policies that protect the poor and vulnerable in our nation and around the world.

PICNIC SUCCESS

Sunday, August 21st was our sixth annual family picnic at the VFW. Some people were able to attend as a result of the generous parishioners who donated money for families that could not afford to go otherwise.

There was plenty of picnic food for all and Marilyn Lago and her team of dedicated volunteers made sure everyone had enough to eat. We would also like to thank the VFW on Adamstown Road and the members who assisted us throughout the day. And the day would not have been a success without the members of our parish that came and enjoyed the day!

Watch the bulletin so you can save the date and join us next year at our Seventh Annual Family Picnic.
