Special thanks to our Religious Education Coordinator
Nancy Grodberg

May the Lord bless you and continue to use you as an instrument of His will.

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Gracious and all-loving Father, out of love for all people you spoke your Word who became flesh for our salvation. May your Word transform me so that the message of your Son, our Lord, may be echoed through my teaching. Allow me to guide the hearts of those whom I teach in such a way that they will enter more deeply into your way of truth and salvation. Grant me the insight needed to lead them to know, love, and serve you. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, may they become hearers and followers of your Word, so that they might help transform the world to follow the way of life to which your Son has called us all, for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Reflections for

The Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel sounds puzzling to contemporary readers, but it can be made less so by considering the economic system which stands behind the parable. A steward is dismissed because he is squandering his master's property. He is called dishonest because he is not serving the interests of the rich man, his employer. In response the steward, in an attempt to ensure favor for himself among the rich man's debtors, brokers repayment of the rich man's loans by foregoing the interest and fees that had been levied to line the steward's pockets. It is this action, in which the steward puts aside his greed and takes the longer perspective in order to enhance his security, which is commended by the rich man.

The passage concludes with three morals for the listeners. The first exhorts the listener to be prudent about the use of wealth. Like the steward in the parable, those who would follow Jesus must put transitory affairs in proper perspective. Christians should handle the affairs of temporal life with an eye toward eternal life.

The second concerns trustworthiness. Those who can be trusted in small things can also be trusted in great things. If Christians handle money and other passing things responsibly, then they can also be trusted with the affairs of the Kingdom of God.

Finally, Jesus tells his listeners that no one can serve two masters simultaneously. God must be put ahead of money.

Two important tools to any Catholic who wishes to practice and provide a suitable witness to their faith are apologetics and catechesis. Apologetics – despite what the word sounds like, as if one is making an “apology” – is the discipline of defending one’s position through the use of reason. This is how one uses Scripture, Tradition and natural reason to explain the faith. Catechesis means to teach by word of mouth and is the discipline of transmitting that faith to others.

This Sunday is known by the Church in the United States as Catechetical Sunday. It honors our catechists: those who have made the commitment to teach the faith to those who come to the Church to learn; primarily those who teach school-age children, but also those who give their time and talent to catechize adults through our parish’s Rite of Christian Initiation (R.C.I.A.)

These disciplines are closely related because one vitally builds upon the other: how can one possibly defend through reason the truths of the faith if they have never been adequately taught those truths and the meaning behind them? Regrettably, this was a very common state of the Catholic Church in the United States. Following the catechesis practiced in the decades of the 1960s, ‘70s and ‘80s (of which I will confess I was a product – I won’t necessarily say which decade!) that seemed determined to instill more of a “feel-good” sort of religion instead of the more meaningful tenets of our faith, I believe that we are starting to see a true effort providing a better grounded basis for our beliefs. Beginning with the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992 and supported by the programs for religious education built upon that foundation, religious instruction has a more systematic and integrated approach. I believe that with these methods our children can attain a better grasp of their faith and be more adequately prepared to defend that faith against adversity from non-believers (or even disaffected/lapsed Catholics.)

But, that still leaves the children of those aforementioned decades – what do they do? I believe that it is still not too late, that it is possible to obtain the catechesis that may be lacking and to do so in an approach that can be practical, immediately giving us the tools needed to learn and defend our faith. Guided by the teachings of the Church and of those within it – clergy, catechists and faithful people who have a sincere desire to lead others to Christ – it can be done. We can work to bring about the goal for ourselves and others of the foundational question in the Baltimore Catechism: Why did God make you? God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in heaven.

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SEMINAR-

Come and allow Jesus Christ to establish, restore, and deepen that relationship with you. This seminar offers the presentation of the Gospel and the basic teaching about what the Lord is willing to do for all who come to Him. Speaking at Mass, Pope Francis said: “The Holy Spirit, opens the doors and invites us to bear witness to Jesus.” Let us make that a reality.

Please join us for six Fridays-beginning October 14, 2016 and continuing for the next 5 Fridays from 7:15 to 9:00 pm in the Visitation Parish Hall. Are you thirsting for an ever deeper relationship with God? Wanting to better understand the Holy Spirit and his role in your life? Longing to be more alive in your faith? You are invited to join us for music, prayer, live presentations and discussions on living life with the power of the Holy Spirit. We have an elevator for ease of access. Contact Paul Rollis at 732-255-2728 or email Dale Zanetti, Adult Faith Formation at dzanetti@visitationrcchurch.com.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

As Catechists we are being called to deeper prayer and study to benefit our own lives but also the lives of all those we teach.

Or St. Francis de Sales, who says that “every one of us needs half an hour of prayer each day except when we’re busy –then we need an hour.” So don’t say you are too busy because it will mean another 50 minutes on your knees.

In the gospels we see Jesus praying as an example to us. He showed us the way and we continue to learn from him when we converse with him. In his humanity Jesus showed us it was perfectly natural for a human believer to pray and communicate with his Father.

We are all called to be saints and given this wealth or our faith to communicate with God to become those saints. We have received the call to holiness at our baptism and we enhance and enrich that call every time we talk with our God. Prayer is the opening of ourselves to the mystery of the Trinity and his will for our lives; it is our path to holiness. If we are to be holy like the Father is holy we need to get to know the Father and we do that by praying and studying his word.

Prayer makes us better people, richer in mercy, and more complete. When we pray earnestly and faithfully we fulfill our baptismal call. St. Therese of Lisieux says:

For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.

Prayer fills us with the love of God and others, it fills us to overflowing with grace, it allows us a glimpse of heaven and shows us how to enter into the mystery of God and makes us better teachers of the people of God.

SEPTEMBER 18, 2016

To all of the good people and friends of Visitation,

As you have heard, a major campaign is underway at Visitation and throughout the Diocese of Trenton. This week I will provide a brief overview of the campaign for each of you.

Faith to Move Mountains is a $75 million Diocesan-wide endowment campaign that will secure the resources needed to enable our Church to flourish for generations to come. Unlike the Annual Catholic Appeal, which addresses the day-to-day operating expenses of the Diocese, this campaign will establish endowments to respond to critical long-term needs and serve as a permanent and self-sustaining source of financial stability for the Diocese. Once established, the funds will continue to grow through the reinvestment of interest and earnings, as well as additional gifts. Through this, the endowments will provide support for the following needs in perpetuity:

- Our Parishes: $30 million
- Ordained Ministry: $20 million
- Catholic Schools: $15 million
- Social Services: $5 million
- Catechesis and Evangelization: $5 million

In addition, 30% of the campaign funds that we raise toward our parish goal will be directed back to our parish for our own local needs! These parish projects are outlined below:

- Church Parking Lot Asphalt Removal and Repaving: $162,500
- Church Carpeting Replacement/Floor Enhancement: $70,000

In the coming weeks, I will share further details about the campaign for all of you. It is my hope that our entire community will join together and participate in this extraordinary effort for our parish. In the meantime, anyone is welcome to approach me before or after Mass with any questions you may have. Thank you for your continued prayers and support!

God bless,
Father Ed
