ANNUAL APPEAL EXPLANATION

The Annual Catholic Appeal, remains the same as it was when it began; to financially empower the Church to serve all the people of God, regardless of belief. What’s different today: the needs are greater than ever before. Visit the Diocese website: <http://www.dioceseoftrenton.org/catholicappeal>

*Reflections for
The Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time*

This is the first of two parables that Jesus tells in Luke 18 about prayer. (The second will be read at Mass next Sunday.) This first parable is a lesson in persistence in prayer. (Next Sunday's parable will address attitude in prayer.) While the parable seems to present prayer as nagging God for what we want, such a reading misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by requests and coerced to respond. The key is found in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if even an unjust judge responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God truly wants to hear our needs and respond generously. It is the final lament of Jesus that gets to the point of the parable. The lesson is about the persistence of the one who prays. God wants us to be like the persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. Then Jesus laments, “Will such faith be found when the Son of Man comes?” In this lament, Jesus notes how easy it can be for us to lose heart.

OCTOBER 16, 2016

We were blessed on Tuesday last week to celebrate the latest Young Adult Mass, part of an initiative by the Diocese of Trenton in reaching out to those between 19 and 40 years old. Although the turnout was less than hoped, as I celebrated the Mass I could certainly feel the power of the Holy Spirit going through the congregation, building up the energy and life of those who took part. If properly supported, this is definitely a trend that will help our parish and the Church as a whole.

Now fast-forward a bit, to this weekend. As I looked out on the congregation, I couldn't help but be reminded of the adage: "When the weather is bad and when the weather is good, Mass attendance will suffer." While I won't conclusively say that it was the only factor, I can't help but feel that a little rain convinced many that it was too large a sacrifice to get out of a warm bed to worship our Lord in His house. Did we forget that – unless under serious extra-ordinary circumstances – the obligation to attend weekly Mass has never been repealed? This is definitely a trend that will threaten our parish, our Church and will imperil many souls in the process.

Is it possible to nurture the first and address the second? Happily, I think that it is and that an important tool for that is in the works. As you may know, our parish has started our Life in the Spirit seminar sessions. They began this past Friday and will continue for the next five Fridays here at the church (for more information visit our parish website at <http://www.visitationrcchurch.org> and click on the Life in the Spirit link). I have heard many good things about this program and I'm looking forward to the remaining sessions. If you didn't attend last Friday, there are still five more opportunities and it is certainly better late than never. It is also a good opportunity to connect with others on their spiritual journey of faith and to invite those who may have become disconnected (the "spiritual but not religious" nones that are increasing at an alarming rate in our nation) back to the relationship with Jesus that is communal as well as personal.

God has never stopped calling us to follow him – we just need to open our ears to hear!

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER
BY POPE FRANCIS

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan women: "If you knew the gift of God!" You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

"FOR HEAVEN SAKE" is a religious gift shop located at 608 Brighton Ave., in Spring Lake Heights. When a parishioner that makes a purchase in their store and designates "the Church of the Visitation", we will receive a $1 donation from their store. Please visit their store when you want to purchase a religious gift. 732-449-7253. Thank you.
