ADULT CONFIRMATION

Courtney Barbara Marotta, a parishioner here at Visitation, came to us some weeks ago, asking about carrying out her full Christian initiation as a baptized Roman Catholic. We have spoken to her about how to have a more intimate union with Christ and a more lively familiarity with the Holy Spirit, his actions, his gifts, and his commands. Our team has shared many stories and instructions with her, and helped her to see how God has been acting in her life. She continues to walk in Christ’s footsteps and is now asking for us to assist her with her Confirmation so she may assume the apostolic responsibilities of Christian life. This Sunday at 11:00 AM Mass we will be celebrating Confirmation with her. Let us all rejoice with her as her community of faith.

Pentecost Sunday

The Season of Easter concludes with today’s celebration, the Feast of Pentecost in which we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; marking the beginning of the Church.

We already heard today’s Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus’ appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus’ act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God’s act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for “spirit” can also be translated as “breath.”

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church’s sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people Loyola Press

PENTECOST

With the celebration of Pentecost, we conclude our 50 day celebration of the Easter Season. Tomorrow, we return to Ordinary Time. I recently read a May 18th article at Crisis Magazine that argued for abolishing Ordinary Time. One reason is that in English, we first think of “ordinary” as meaning “commonplace” and hence Mass then becomes boring. Our “Ordinary time” refers to the ordering of weeks as in the “ordinal” numbers. In Latin, this time is tempus per annum or “time through the year.” But that doesn’t sound exciting either.

Not too long ago (before 1970), there was no “Ordinary Time.” We had the Advent & Christmas seasons, the seasons of Lent & Easter, and the weeks after Epiphany and Pentecost. Perhaps, we need to distinguish between the grand celebrations of Easter & Christmas and Ordinary Time, but that doesn’t mean that the “time through the year” is tiresome.

We might also wonder why the celebration of Pentecost is only one day. We have octaves (eight days) for Easter and Christmas. We used to have a dizzying number of octaves before 1568 when Pope Saint Pius V reduced the number to around 18. Pope Pius XII reduced them again in 1955 to just three: Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost. Then the Octave of Pentecost was removed in 1969. Theologians and liturgists have written about restoring the Octave of Pentecost. This would be an example of what Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI desired: that the Extraordinary and Ordinary Forms of the Roman Rite would mutually enrich one another.

We still do have an element of the Weeks after Pentecost in the new liturgical calendar of 1969. The color for Ordinary Time is green which is the color for the Holy Spirit. We wear red on Pentecost now to highlight the fire of the Holy Spirit, but the Weeks after Pentecost, we might even say the Season of Pentecost, is noted by the color green. And we associate green with life.

Jesus prayed that we might have life to the full (John 10:10). We attribute this “life to the full” to the action of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church. We celebrate Pentecost as the birth of the Church. By the grace of the Holy Spirit, we too can live life to the full. That doesn’t mean mere excitement. It means living life to the full in the ordering of our lives in time through the year.

We celebrate Pentecost today.

We continue through the year to learn about and then be docile to the activity of the Holy Spirit in our lives
so that we might deeply abide with Jesus who reveals the Father.

ARE YOU BEING CALLED?
EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION
TRAINING SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion participate in a ministry in which lay people are called to share the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ with the faithful. They perform an important role in the life of the Catholic Church in a variety of ways. They may:

- Assist the clergy in distributing Holy Communion at the Sacred Liturgy (Mass)
- Bring Holy Communion to the homebound of the parish
- Bring Holy Communion to Catholics in Brick Hospital, Shorrock Gardens Care Center and Forge Pond

You are not expected to participate in all of the components. You may choose the area(s) that best fit you and your schedule.

Pope Paul VI lists the qualities which, ideally, should be present in the minister of communion. "The person...must be duly instructed and should distinguish himself or herself by Christian life, faith, and morals, striving to be worthy of this great office, cultivating devotion to the Holy Eucharist and acting as an example to the other faithful by piety and reverence for this most holy sacrament of the altar. Let no one be chosen whose selection may cause scandal among the faithful."

To become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at the Church of the Visitation you must attend a series of three classes. A series of classes is scheduled to begin in June. Classes during the day are on Friday, June 23 and 30 and July 7 at 1 pm. Evening classes are on Wednesday, June 21 and 28 and July 5 at 7 pm. You may attend either the morning or evening session in a given week. You must attend one session from each week. Pre-registration is required so that enough material can be prepared. The initial session for both sessions will be in the Daily Chapel.

For more information or to register, contact Vicki at 732-477-7059 ext. 216, e-mail VCottrell@visitationRCchurch.org or visit our website www.visitationRCchurch.org.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home shed a ray of light divine!

In today's liturgy, before the Gospel Acclamation, we sing the great Pentecost Sequence: a song of praise to the Holy Spirit, in Latin known as Veni Sancte Spiritus. This song dates back to the thirteenth century (attributed to Pope Innocent III) and is a beautifully poetic prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to come and to shine divine light on all humanity.

Using stirring titles, the prayer calls on the Holy Spirit to come down upon us. It gives witness to the work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the world. If our souls are weary, it reminds us, the Holy Spirit brings us rest; in the heat of temptation, the Holy Spirit brings graceful coolness; if our souls are heavy and burdened by sorrow, the Holy Spirit consoles us.

The prayer continues, asking the Holy Spirit to wash us, to bring healing to the injured soul, to soften the hardened heart, to warm the cold-hearted, and to lead the lost. It ends by asking the Holy Spirit to give the seven holy gifts, to give reward to the virtuous and to lead us through death to salvation.

There are various translations of the sequence set to music. As the Easter season comes to a close, find a copy of this prayer. Pray it at various times today, in observance of Pentecost. Pray it throughout the coming seasons. Pray it whenever you are in need of a reminder of God's great love and care, given to us through the Holy Spirit. Veni, Sancte Spiritus! Holy Spirit, Come! Alleluia!

COLLECTION MONEY ETIQUETTE

We love creative art as much as the next person. Origami, right at the top of the list. HOWEVER, not with your donation money. We are receiving money that is folded, twisted and made into adorable little “things”. Cute, but not a good idea! We're ripping the money as we try to unfold your art work. Please place your money in the envelope or the collection baskets in proper fashion. Once again, please do NOT use tape or staples to seal your envelopes. Don't stop those creative juices from flowing; just not with your donation money.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE WINNER OF OUR MAY 50/50

John Ardent was the winner of $599. The next drawing will be June 25, in the Church Auditorium after the 12:30 PM Mass.

THE FOOD PANTRY

The gifts that are most needed are non-perishable foods such as hearty stews, chili, hearty soups, canned tuna and chicken, canned fruit, peanut butter & jelly, canned or bottled sauce, canned vegetables, macaroni & cheese, pork and beans, boxed mashed potatoes, pancake mix and syrup, cereal, juice, tea, crackers, cookies, beef jerky, nuts, condiments, rice a roni, shaving cream just to name a few. Monetary donations are always appreciated. These gifts, along with all of the food collected at the doors of the church will be given to our St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry to assist the poor and afflicted.
