Reflections for
The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Loyola Press

JUNE 11, 2017

This weekend is Pledge Sunday for the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) throughout the diocese of Trenton. Each year Bishop O'Connell seeks the support of all the members of the diocese to further the work of our ministries. Each of us has a vital part in all we do in Christ's name and each of us can share in all we do with a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our single Act of Faith propels the Works of Love that that builds up our Church. You make that happen with a generous gift to the ACA.

This year Visitation Parish's share of the goal is $92,000. This is unchanged from last year.

As the people of the Diocese of Trenton, we have an opportunity to help others see Christ working in our midst. I ask you to take a moment and truly reflect on any help you can give. We truly need everyone to participate. This year we again are striving to reach our total diocesan goal of $7 million.

You may contribute by mail with the pledge card you received in the mail or at Mass this weekend, by telephone when you call 609-403-7197 or online at <http://www.dioceseoftrenton.org/catholicappeal>. One hundred percent of donations go to fund the various programs sponsored by the Diocese (you can find the list on the Appeal brochure). We will receive 15% of donations back if we reach our goal and 50% of any amount over goal for use right here at the parish.

I am always grateful and moved by the extremely generous level of support you give to our parish. I thank you for this support and may God continue to bless you and your family!

Fr. Ed

Congratulations

ARE YOU BEING CALLED?
EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION
TRAINING SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion participate in a ministry in which lay people are called to share the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ with the faithful. They perform an important role in the life of the Catholic Church in a variety of ways. They may:

- Assist the clergy in distributing Holy Communion at the Sacred Liturgy (Mass)
- Bring Holy Communion to the homebound of the parish
- Bring Holy Communion to Catholics in Brick Hospital, Shorrock Gardens Care Center and Forge Pond

You are not expected to participate in all of the components. You may choose the area(s) that best fit you and your schedule.

Pope Paul VI lists the qualities which, ideally, should be present in the minister of communion. "The person...must be duly instructed and should distinguish himself or herself by Christian life, faith, and morals, striving to be worthy of this great office, cultivating devotion to the Holy Eucharist and acting as an example to the other faithful by piety and reverence for this most holy sacrament of the altar. Let no one be chosen whose selection may cause scandal among the faithful."

To become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at the Church of the Visitation you must attend a series of three classes. A series of classes is scheduled to begin in June. Classes during the day are on Friday, June 23 and 30 and July 7 at 1 pm. Evening classes are on Wednesday, June 21 and 28 and July 5 at 7 pm. You may attend either the morning or evening session in a given week. You must attend one session from each week. Pre-registration is required so that enough material can be prepared. The initial session for both sessions will be in the Daily Chapel.

For more information or to register, contact Vicki at 732-477-7059 ext. 216, e-mail VCottrell@visitationRCchurch.org or visit our website www.visitationRCchurch.org.

FEAST THANK YOU

Visitation acknowledged the Feast of the Visitation and Pentecost (the birthday of the universal church) on Saturday, June 3 with a pot luck dinner. Thanks to the parishioners and friends who participated in the special celebration by joining us and sharing a wide variety of delicious food. A warm and sociable atmosphere permeated the parish hall. It would not have been a success without you. Special thanks goes to Marilyn Lago and her team of volunteers who set up, served and cleaned up after the festivities were over. We hope to see everyone next year.

COLLECTION MONEY ETIQUETTE

We love creative art as much as the next person. Origami, right at the top of the list. HOWEVER, not with your donation money. We are receiving money that is folded, twisted and made into adorable little “things”. Cute, but not a good idea! We’re ripping the money as we try to unfold your art work. Please place your money in the envelope or the collection baskets in proper fashion. Once again, please do NOT use tape or staples to seal your envelopes. Don’t stop those creative juices from flowing; just not with your donation money.

THE FOOD PANTRY

The gifts that are most needed are non-perishable foods such as hearty stews, chili, hearty soups, canned tuna and chicken, canned fruit, peanut butter & jelly, canned or bottled sauce, canned vegetables, macaroni & cheese, pork and beans, boxed mashed potatoes, pancake mix and syrup, cereal, juice, tea, crackers, cookies, beef jerky, nuts, condiments, rice a roni, shaving cream just to name a few. Monetary donations are always appreciated. These gifts, along with all of the food collected at the doors of the church will be given to our St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry to assist the poor and afflicted.
