Reflections for

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Today’s Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus’ multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John’s Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as “signs” through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John’s Gospel, Jesus’ multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God’s saving action toward the Israelites.

Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him, perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today’s Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven.

Jesus’ words are not well understood by the crowd; they argue that Jesus is not from heaven but born of Mary and Joseph. The crowd also has trouble understanding how Jesus could give them his flesh to eat. Jesus tells them that when they eat his flesh and drink his blood, they will remain forever connected to him. These are difficult words, but they are important because they seek to show us our intimate connection with Jesus.

This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus’ Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ’s Body in the world.

JUNE 18, 2017

Recently, I was passing by one of the parish buildings and I noticed a parishioner occupied with something on the ground. I asked what she was doing and she responded that the walkway needed tending and she was replacing some of the plants that had died. She was doing this without being asked, without expecting compensation. She simply saw a need and was doing her best to meet it. In reflecting on this event and in how vital she saw her responsibility, I was reminded how important it is for all of us to keep a proper perspective of own relationships with our parish.

On this Father's Day we recall how our own fathers – assuming that he was responsibly fulfilling his paternal role – gladly gave of himself for the greater good of the family: putting the need of others before his own wants or desires, making use of all his resources to care for the people that God had given him in this life. I hope that you can recall memories of your earthly father doing so; but, regardless of how our natural fathers responded to that responsibility, we have been blessed to be members of our parish family through our Heavenly Father, who loves us far more than any human possibly can. We are called into this family not only because of the benefit that it provides for us personally, but because each of us is called to actively participate in and to nourish these bonds for the greater good. Visitation Parish doesn't belong only to the bishop, nor only to the pastor nor only to any one particularly generous individual, but to us all. In responsibly carrying out our own duties, we should look for opportunities to care for that parish family; through volunteering our time and our talent as well as our financial support.

This weekend, as you celebrate or remember the relationship with your father and family, I would invite you to re-examine your own relationship with your parish family and see where that relationship may need some work. What steps are needed to reconcile, renew or strengthen the special bonds between us all that have been given to us by God as His children? You are in my prayers for a blessed and happy Father's Day!

Fr. Ed

FR. ED & STAFF WOULD LIKE TO WISH ALL FATHERS A VERY HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

PRAYER FOR FATHER'S

Lord, please bless our fathers, these men who mean so much to us, who are greatly responsible for who we are and who we are becoming. Bless our fathers for being our protectors, for leading us through stormy times to safety, for making us believe that everything will be all right and for making it so.

Bless our fathers for quietly making a living to provide for those they love most, for giving us food, clothing, shelter and the other material things that really matter, for unselfishly investing time and money in us that they could have spent on themselves. Bless them for being our secure foundation, our rock, for holding on tight to us. until it's time to let us go. Lord, bless these men we look up to, our role models, our heroes, our fathers. Amen.

FATHERS DAY REMEMBRANCE

June 18 is Father's Day. Envelopes (cards no longer available) are available in the vestibule of the Church. Please remember to pick up your envelope to have your father or a loved one remembered during the week of June 19-23.

ARE YOU BEING CALLED?
EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION
TRAINING SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion participate in a ministry in which lay people are called to share the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ with the faithful. They perform an important role in the life of the Catholic Church in a variety of ways. They may:

- Assist the clergy in distributing Holy Communion at the Sacred Liturgy (Mass)
- Bring Holy Communion to the homebound of the parish
- Bring Holy Communion to Catholics in Brick Hospital, Shorrocks Gardens Care Center and Forge Pond

You are not expected to participate in all of the components. You may choose the area(s) that best fit you and your schedule.

Pope Paul VI lists the qualities which, ideally, should be present in the minister of communion. "The person...must be duly instructed and should distinguish himself or herself by Christian life, faith, and morals, striving to be worthy of this great office, cultivating devotion to the Holy Eucharist and acting as an example to the other faithful by piety and reverence for this most holy sacrament of the altar. Let no one be chosen whose selection may cause scandal among the faithful."

To become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at the Church of the Visitation you must attend a series of three classes. A series of classes is scheduled to begin in June. Classes during the day are on Friday, June 23 and 30 and July 7 at 1 pm. Evening classes are on Wednesday, June 21 and 28 and July 5 at 7 pm. You may attend either the morning or evening session in a given week. You must attend one session from each week. Pre-registration is required so that enough material can be prepared. The initial session for both sessions will be in the Daily Chapel.

For more information or to register, contact Vicki at 732-477-7059 ext. 216, e-mail VCottrell@visitationRCchurch.org or visit our website www.visitationRCchurch.org.

THANK YOU!

Thank you for your generous donations of new underwear & socks for the homeless. They have been distributed to the Howell Transitional Encampment (formally know as Tent City when it was in Lakewood) and they were very grateful to have received them.

And the crowds asked him, What then shall we do? He said to them in reply, "Whoever has two cloaks, should share with the person that has none; and whoever has food should do likewise."

Luke 3:10

A copy of the child's Baptism Certificate is required if the child has NOT been baptized at Visitation.

NOTE: Due to space restrictions, children that are being re-registered for weekday and summer classes will be placed into a classroom based on the family's active participation in Visitation Parish, not on a first-come-first-serve basis if the classrooms fill. For any further information, please call Nancy Grodberg @ 732 477-5217 or email ngrodberg@visitationrcchurch.org.

If anyone is interested in helping ease the financial burden of Community Sunday, please stop by or call the rectory office (ext. 201) and speak with Denise Patetta. You can subsidize a month with a donation of $100 or more or you can sponsor a month for a donation of $300. You can honor either a living or deceased loved one.

COLLECTION MONEY ETIQUETTE

We love creative art as much as the next person. Origami, right at the top of the list. HOWEVER, not with your donation money. We are receiving money that is folded, twisted and made into adorable little “things”. Cute, but not a good idea! We’re ripping the money as we try to unfold your art work. Please place your money in the envelope or the collection baskets in proper fashion. Once again, please do NOT use tape or staples to seal your envelopes. Don’t stop those creative juices from flowing; just not with your donation money.
