Reflections for
The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful. Loyola Press

JULY 9, 2017

Having just celebrated Independence Day during a period of our nation's history when our political leaders are locked in turmoil regarding, along with so many other issues, turning our Founding Fathers' vision regarding freedom of religion into freedom from religion, I offer for reflection the song symbolic of our nation, The Star-Spangled Banner.

As any school student knows, the song developed from a letter written by Francis Scott Key as he witnessed the bombing of Fort McHenry in Baltimore Harbor by the British Navy during the War of 1812. Many of us can sing the words by heart (although at times we might have to resist the urge to yell Play Ball! afterwards), but you may not be aware that the song has more than one verse. If there was ever any doubt on the importance of God in the life of our country, here is the fourth verse of our national anthem (bold added):

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the Star - Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Having observed this 241st anniversary of the founding of our nation, please offer a prayer that God will once again bless us and keep us safe: as individuals, as families, as a parish community and as a nation!

Thank you for your help.

CCD REGISTRATIONS

New registrations and Sunday & Weekday registrations are accepted any day of the week in the Religious Education Office from 11:00 AM until 7:00 PM Monday – Thursday & 11:00 – 5:00 on Friday. (Saturday by appointment only).

BINGO HELP

Help is needed for Tuesday morning bingo. Please stop by the Parish Hall on Tuesdays (11:00 AM – 2:00 PM) and speak with Cindy. Your help will be greatly appreciated even if you can only spare a couple of hours.

While the members of St. Vincent de Paul work selflessly to give assistance to those in need in our area, it is due to the wonderful kindness and generosity of our parishioners that enables us to do as much. Your donations of money and prayers are an indication of your own selflessness and for this we are grateful.

The St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Shop (located in the old church basement) continues to thrive (thanks again due to your donations.) Stop by our store and browse. Perhaps you may find something you didn’t even know you needed.

God's Blessings to All !!!!

PLEASE NOTE

There will be no Rosary Altar or Holy Name Society meetings during the summer. Meetings resume in September. New members are welcome.

RCIA CORNER

HOW DO WE USE SCRIPTURE?

The inspired Word of God contained in Sacred Scripture is the foundation of our Catholic faith. As such, it is a source of personal prayer and piety as well as theological reflection and authoritative teaching. The Scriptures are proclaimed and prayed in our official liturgical rituals as well as in many of our private devotions. Catholics are urged to read and pray over the Bible as a source of moral and spiritual guidance in their personal lives; and when Bishops or theologians exercise their roles as teacher, they draw from and refer to Scripture as the normative source of their instruction. However, we Catholics do not use Scripture in a literal or fundamentalist way. We interpret the meaning of any given passage of Scripture in light of the whole of revelation, contained both in the Bible and in Tradition that has come down to us as authoritative teaching. We recognize that Scripture uses the full range of literary forms, from hyperbole to fiction, from historical narrative to poetry. Thus our understanding of the meaning of Scripture includes an acknowledgement of the author's literary form as well as the realization that under the Holy Spirit's guidance a passage might also have a "fuller sense" of meaning that even the human author intended. For additional information regarding the RCIA program please contact Dale at 732-477-7059 ext. 214.
