Reflections for Second Sunday of Advent

On this the Second Sunday of Advent, we are invited to reflect upon the role of John the Baptist, who prepared the way for Jesus and the salvation that he would bring to us.

Mark's description of the appearance of John the Baptist highlights John's continuity with the Jewish prophetic tradition. Mark combines quotations from the Old Testament books of Malachi, Isaiah, and Exodus. Mark's description of John as an ascetic, living in the desert, clothed in camel hair, and eating locusts and wild honey, is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah found in Second Kings. The people of Judea and Jerusalem flock to him, listening to his message of repentance and forgiveness; they also come to him to be baptized. Mark's Gospel is clear, however, that John the Baptist's role is only to prepare the way for another who will come, one who is greater than John.

Many scholars believe that the Gospels reflect the tension that likely existed between followers of John the Baptist and disciples of Jesus. Each of the four Evangelists report on John's preaching and baptizing, and they each emphasize the importance of Jesus' baptism by John. The four Gospels also explain that John was sent to preach in preparation for another. In the Gospel of Luke, the question is raised as to whether John the Baptist was himself the Messiah. Just as in today's Gospel, however, John speaks quite explicitly that the Messiah was to come after him.

In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist contrast his baptism of repentance with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John says that he has baptized with water, but that the one who is to come will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John's baptism was not yet a Christian baptism, but a preparation for the Sacrament of Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

John the Baptist is presented to us as a model during Advent. We, too, are called upon to prepare a way for the Lord. Like John the Baptist, we are messengers in service to one who is greater than we are. Our Baptism commissions us to call others to life as disciples of Jesus. Loyola Press

I don't know about you, but I find society's message for this time of year very confusing. If we listen and try to follow what we hear from the media and see in the shopping malls, it almost seems as if we're commanded to "be joyful in the holiday spirit". This implies that there's something wrong with us if we are anything less than deliriously joyful while we're plunking down our plastic at the cash register, or driving ourselves crazy isolated in the "comfort" of our homes while on-line, for that latest "must have" gift.

Of course, this would be an effort for anyone even under the best of circumstances, but it can be especially difficult – if not impossible – for those grieving the recent (or maybe not so recent) loss of a loved one. To help maintain a hopeful, Christ-centered perspective on this holiday season (which for Catholics and many other Christians is called "Advent"; the Christmas season doesn't begin until December 25th) I would like to offer ten tips from the National Catholic Ministry for the Bereaved to remember during those times when your heart is heavy and grief seems overpowering:

- Try to remember. Don't try to forget
- Give yourself the gift of healing tears
- Be realistic in your expectations
- Tell people what you need. Ask for their help
- Don't lose the holidays completely
- Keep some traditions. Choose those that bring you comfort
- Visit a special place that brings you warm memories
- Listen to your body. Take time to rest, refresh and renew
- Don't wait for others to bring you happiness
- Light a special candle in celebration of the love you still share.

My prayers that you have a blessed Advent season and all hopes for holy joy as we prepare for the true Christmas miracle of the Incarnation – the Word taking flesh and dwelling among us!

Fr. Ed

ADVENT MISSION SERIES

“Be Born Among Us” - December is always a busy time of buying gifts, attending social and work gatherings and making sure everything is ready for Christmas. Advent is the Liturgical Season of anticipation and preparation for the birth of Christ. In the Advent Season we remember how God took on flesh and became man in the person of Christ our Savior. Set time apart this Advent Season for a three-week mission presented by Fr. Joseph Jakub to prepare us well for the birth of Christ once again in our lives this Christmas. Join us for the following sessions in order to have a fuller experience of Christ’s birth at Christmas:

Wednesday, December 13 - 7pm: Christ is born among us in the present

Wednesday, December 20 - 7pm: Christ will come again in the future

All events will take place in the Church Worship Space. In the midst of this hectic time of year don’t forget to set sometime aside to grow in your spiritual journey. Join us and be encouraged and renewed!

THE JESSE GIVING TREE

THE JESSE TREE represents the human ancestors of Jesus. Jesse of Bethlehem had 7 sons, one whom was later to be known as King David. Each ornament depicts one of those ancestors. Adam, Eve, Mary, Joseph, Abraham, Sarah, Jacob, Isaac, John, Elizabeth, Ruth, Zachary, Solomon, Moses and Noah

The Jesse Giving Tree has been placed in our Church Narthex. Each "Gold Star" will represent a gift for some needy child in a family that the St.
Vincent de Paul Society serves throughout the year.
When you take a "Gold Star" from our tree, the front will tell you if the child is a boy or girl and their age. The back of the star might give you a suggestion regarding something special that girl or boy would like for Christmas.

The "Gold Star" needs to be attached to the wrapped gift and placed under our Jesse Tree by December 18th or earlier. (Our elves need a few days to deliver the gifts to our needy families).

PARISH PENANCE SERVICE
PENANCE SERVICES FOR CHRISTMAS
WILL BE HELD IN THE CHURCH
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2:00 & 7:00 PM

TEN STEPS TO RECONCILIATION

- 1. Admit and express your feelings. Write them in a journal; talk them out with an impartial friend. Be honest. Say what you want to say. Get it all out.
- 2. Decide & pray. Forgiveness is not a matter of feeling, but of decision. The decision to forgive will not automatically change your feelings, but it's a start. Pray for the desire to forgive. Pray that the Lord will change both hearts. Forgiveness is a process; it takes time. Be generous with your time and your heart.
- 3. Confess and repent. Focus on your sins, not the other persons'. What did I do to contribute to the situation? No one is ever totally innocent. "It takes two..." Rid yourself of resentment; it does no good.
- 4. Let go of fear and anger. Out of fear, our hearts can harden to protect us from further hurt. We delay reconciliation because of fear of rejection. The longer one waits to reconcile, the more anger and resentment grows. What are you waiting for? Start the process. (Read and reflect on Psalm 51).
- 5. Gain a fair perspective. When hurt, our imagination has "a field day." Exaggeration blossoms. Get grounded. Place yourself in the other person's shoes. Try to understand.
- 6. Imagine the meeting. Use your imagination in a positive way. Reflect on what you will say and do. Practice smiling. Imagine that Jesus is in the room with both of you. What is He asking of you?
- 7. Meet with the other person. Reach out. Take a risk. What have you got to lose? Choose a time when neither will feel rushed. Have a positive attitude. Begin the meeting with prayer. Each speak about the experience from your own perspective. Be open to another interpretation. There are always three perspectives: yours, the other person's, and the truth.
- 8. Give thanks to God. If successful, offer thanks to God. If not, give thanks for the opportunity to put Gospel teachings into practice. Remember, we learn from our failures as well as our successes. Most of the time, there will be a tomorrow.
- 9. Deepen the reconciliation. The process continues. This initial act of forgiveness will need to be ratified by other acts of kindness. Make plans for the next get-together: dinner, shopping; some activity that will allow for communication.
- 10. Be patient. Few friendships are established in one setting; they develop over time. Reconciliation takes time, too. Be good to yourself and your friend. Let reconciliation grow and develop. You're both worth it.
